167th Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry.

ONE HUNDRED DAYS' SERVICE.

THIS Regiment was organized at Hamilton, O., May 14, 16 and 17, 1864, to serve one hundred days. It was composed of the Sixty-first and Sixty-fifth Battalions, Ohio National Guard, from Butler County. Two days after muster-in the Regiment received orders to proceed to Charleston, W. Va., which place it reached on the 21st of May, and reported to Colonel Ewart, commanding the post. Six companies were immediately sent to Camp Piatt, and four to Gauley Bridge, relieving the Second, Third, and Seventh Regiments Virginia Cavalry. The points named were posts of supply, and the only duty the Regiment was called upon to perform was guarding Government stores and accompanying trains to and from the main bodies of the National forces in that part of Western Virginia. It was mustered out September 8, 1864, on expiration of its term of service.

168th Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry.

ONE HUNDRED DAYS' SERVICE.

This Regiment was organized at Camp Dennison, O., from the 12th to the 19th of May, 1864, to serve one hundred days. It was composed of the Sixty-sixth Battalion, Ohio National Guard, from Highland County; Sixty-seventh Battalion, Ohio National Guard, from Fayette County; and one Company of the Thirty-fifth Battalion, Ohio National Guard, from Clarke County. On the 9th of June the Regiment proceeded to Covington, Ky., and embarked on the Covington and Lexington Railroad. Company B, with twenty men from Company G, was detached at Falmouth to guard the railroad bridge, and at other points Companies were stationed to protect the road. On the 10th of June a detachment of three hundred occupied Cynthiana. At six o'clock on the morning of the 11th of June a large force of Rebel Cavalry moved against the town, in which engagement the One Hundred and Sixty-eighth lost seven men killed, eighteen wounded, and two hundred and eighty captured. That portion of the Regiment under command of Major Newton remained in Kentucky until the 10th of July, when it was ordered to Camp Dennison, to join the paroled prisoners. The Regiment was then sent to Cincinnati, where it performed guard duty. It was mustered out Sept. 8, 1864, on expiration of term of service.

170th Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry.

ONE HUNDRED DAYS' SERVICE.

THIS Regiment was organized at Bellaire, O., May 13 and 14, 1864, to serve one hundred days. It was composed of the Seventy-fourth Battalion, Ohio National Guard, from Belmont County, and the Seventy-eighth Battalion, Ohio National Guard, from Harrison County. The Regiment immediately proceeded to Washington City, and upon its arrival, May 22d, was assigned to duty in Forts Simmons, Mansfield, Bayard, Gaines, and Battery Vermont. On the night of the 4th of July it left the defenses at Washington and proceeded to Sandy Hook, Md., to join the forces assembled in the defense of Maryland Heights. The Regiment remained in the vicinity of Maryland Heights until the 15th of July, when it was attached to the Second Brigade, First Division, Army of West Virginia, and participated, during the remainder of its term of service, in the movements and engagements of that army. While lying at Cedar Creek the Regiment was detached and ordered to Harper's Ferry as escort to a supply-train. It remained at Harper's Ferry until the 24th of August, when transportation to Ohio was furnished. The Regiment arrived at Columbus, O., on the 27th of August, and was mustered out September 10, 1864, on expiration of its term of service.

171st Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry.

ONE HUNDRED DAYS' SERVICE.

THIS Regiment was organized at Sandusky, O., May 7, 1864, to serve one hundred days. It was composed of the Fifty-first Battalion, Ohio National Guard, from Trumbull County; Fourteenth Battalion, Ohio National Guard, from Portage County; Eighty-fifth Battalion, Ohio National Guard, from Lake County; and the Eighty-sixth Battalion, Ohio National Guard, from Geauga County. The Regiment was ordered to Johnson's Island, O., where it was engaged in guard- and fatigue-duty. On the 9th of June the One Hundred and Seventy-first was ordered to Covington, Ky., reporting on arrival to General Hobson. It was then placed on cars and ordered to Cynthiana, but upon arriving at Keller's Bridge the Regiment debarked, where it was attacked by a force of Morgan's Cavalry, on the 11th of June, in which engagement the Regiment lost thirteen killed and fifty-four wounded. Soon after the fight at Keller's Bridge, Morgan was pressed so closely that he was compelled to parole his prisoners, who made their way to Augusta; from there they were taken on boats to Covington, and then transferred to Camp Dennison, where they joined the Regiment. The Regiment moved from Camp Dennison to Johnson's Island, where it remained until the 20th of August, 1864, when it was mustered out on expiration of term of service.

173d Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry.

ONE YEAR'S SERVICE.

THIS Regiment was organized at Gallipolis, O., in September, 1864, to serve one year. Immediately after muster-in the Regiment was ordered to Nashville, Tenn., where it arrived about the 1st of October, and was assigned to duty in the city. Early on the morning of the 15th of December the Regiment took position on the Murfreesboro Pike. After daylight the Regiment was moved to the left of Fort Negley, and in the afternoon it moved to the right of the fort, and remained there during the battle. After the battle the Regiment was employed in guarding prisoners at Nashville and in their transit from Nashville to Louisville. On the 15th of February, 1865, the One Hundred and Seventy-third was ordered to Columbia, and, after remaining there a few days, was directed to proceed to Johnsonville. On the 20th of June the Regiment was ordered to Nashville, where it was mustered out June 26, 1865, by order of the War Department.

174th Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry.

ONE YEAR'S SERVICE.

THIS Regiment was organized at Camp Chase, O., from August 18 to September 21, 1864, to serve one year. It was ordered to proceed to Nashville, Tenn., and to report to Gen. W. T. Sherman. The Regiment reached Nashville Sept. 26, and was immediately ordered to proceed to Murfreesboro. It remained at Murfreesboro until the 27th of October, when it was ordered to report to the commanding officer at Decatur, Ala. It was then moved to the mouth of Elk River, leaving, on the way, four companies as a garrison for Athens, Ala. The Regiment soon returned to Decatur, where it remained until the 26th of November, when the town was evacuated. It then returned to Murfreesboro, where it remained during the siege (Dec. 4), and participated in the battle of Overall's Creek. On the 7th of December the Regiment was engaged in the battle of the Cedars. On the 17th of January it moved down the Tennessee and up the Ohio River to Cincinnati. It was then ordered to Washington City, which place it reached on the 29th of January, 1865. The Regiment remained in camp at Washington City until the 21st of February, when it started for North Carolina, reaching Fort Fisher on the 23d. It marched to Morehead City, reaching there on the 24th, and Newbern on the 25th. It took part in the battle of Wise's Fork, at Kinston, N. C.

Under the order mustering out volunteers whose term of service expired previous to the 1st of October, the One Hundred and Seventy-Fourth was mustered out June 28, 1865.

ONE YEAR'S SERVICE.

THIS Regiment was organized at Camp Dennison, O., in October, 1864, to serve one year. It was ordered to Columbia, Tenn., where it performed post and garrison duty in the town, and was also engaged in guarding the Tennessee and Alabama Railroad. In the advance of Hood one of the Regiment's outposts was captured, south of Columbia, while the remainder of the Regiment fell back to Franklin, and took part in the battle at that place on the 30th of November. 177th Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry.

ONE YEAR'S SERVICE.

THIS Regiment was organized at Camp Cleveland, O., from September 23 to October 4, 1864, to serve one year. Immediately after its organization the Regiment proceeded to Nashville, Tenn., via Indianapolis and Louisville. The day after its arrival it was ordered to Tullahoma, and constituted a part of the garrison at that place under General Milroy. The Regiment remained at Tullahoma until Hood's invasion, when it was ordered to Murfreesboro, where it arrived on the 2d day of December. On the 7th of December, Milroy's command, including the One Hundred and Seventy-seventh, charged the works, drove the Rebels back, and captured two pieces of artillery and over two hundred prisoners. A few days after this, while on a foraging expedition, the Regiment had an engagement with the enemy, in which it lost several wounded. After Hood had been driven from Tennessee the Regiment was ordered to Clifton. About the middle of January, 1865, the Regiment embarked at Clifton, proceeded down the Tennessee, and up the Ohio to Cincinnati, where it took the cars for Washington City. From there it moved to Annapolis, Md., and embarked on a vessel for North Carolina, arriving at Fort Fisher on the 7th of February.

The Regiment was engaged in two attacks on the enemy's works from the Cape Fear River to the coast, and crossed the river and participated in the flank movement which compelled the Rebels to evacuate Fort Anderson. It next engaged the enemy at Town Creek, charged them in the rear, and captured the entire command. The next morning the Regiment arrived opposite Wilmington, where it remained about a week, and then joined General Cox, at Kinston, and proceeded to Goldsboro, where it joined Sherman's army. After the surrender of Johnston's army the Regiment was sent to Greensboro, N. C., where it was mustered out June 24, 1865, in accordance with orders from the War Department.

178th Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry.

ONE YEAR'S SERVICE.

THIS Regiment was organized at Camp Chase, O., September 26, 1864, to serve one year, and was at once dispatched, by rail and river, to Nashville, with orders to report to Major General George H. Thomas for duty. The Regiment remained in Nashville some two weeks, performing guard duty, when it was sent to Tullahoma, Tenn., where it composed part of the post command. The post at Tullahoma was evacuated in the winter of 1864, and the One Hundred and Seventy-eighth was sent to Murfreesboro, where it remained during the siege. After the defeat of General Hood's army, at Nashville, the One Hundred and Seventy-eighth was ordered to North Carolina. It landed at Morehead City, N. C., with the Twenty-third Army Corps, and a few days thereafter participated in a skirmish with the enemy at Wise's Fork. After the surrender of Johnston's army, the Regiment was ordered to Charlotte, N. C., where it performed garrison duty, until mustered out of service June 29, 1865, in accordance with orders from the War Department.

180th Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry.

ONE YEAR'S SERVICE.

THIS Regiment was organized at Camp Chase, O., in September and October, 1864, to serve one year. It left Camp Chase on the 15th of October for Nashville, Tenn., and from Nashville was ordered to Decherd, Tenn. The Regiment remained at Decherd for the most part of three months, and was used as guard to the Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad. On January 6, 1865, the Regiment was ordered to Nashville, and, after remaining there a few days, was ordered to guard a train of wagons bound for Eastport, Miss. It went as far as Columbia, where it was met by an order to return to Nashville, and from there was ordered to Washington City. The Regiment reached Washington City January 31, 1865, and was placed in Camp Stoneman, near that City. After remaining about three weeks in camp it was ordered to Fort Fisher. On reaching the mouth of Cape Fear River, the fall of Fort Fisher was announced, rendering its services unnecessary. The Regiment was then taken to Newbern, where it joined a force, under General J. D. Cox, to open railway communication with Goldsboro and General Sherman's Army. At Kinston, N. C., on the 8th, 9th, and 10th of March, the Regiment had an engagement with the forces under Generals Bragg and Hoke, in which the Regiment lost a number killed and wounded. From Kinston the Regiment marched to Goldsboro, which place it reached March 21st. It remained here until April 9th, and then marched with Sherman's Army to Raleigh, N. C., where it performed garrison duty until the surrender of Johnston's Army. The Regiment then moved to Greensboro, and from there to Charlotte, where it remained as the city garrison until July 12, 1865, when it was mustered out in accordance with orders from the War Department.

ONE YEAR'S SERVICE.

THIS Regiment was organized at Camp Chase, O., in February, 1865, to serve one year. Immediately after muster-in the Regiment was ordered to Nashville, Tenn., where it remained for a short time doing garrison duty. From Nashville it proceeded to Chattanooga, thence to Bridgeport, Alabama, which place it reached about the 21st of March, and was engaged in protecting an important railroad bridge over the Tennessee River. It also guarded the track of the railroad between Bridgeport and Chattanooga, a distance of about thirty miles. On the 25th of July the One Hundred and Eighty-fourth was ordered to Edgefield, for garrison duty, and remained at that place until it was mustered out of service, September 20, 1865, at Nashville, Tenn.
